

Stacy Baird

Stacy Baird is the U.S. co-chair of the CERC IP Experts Group. He serves as Executive Director of the U.S.-China Clean Energy Forum Intellectual Property Program, focused on increasing trade and accelerating deployment of clean energy technologies by developing innovative and robust intellectual property practices. Mr. Baird also advises on intellectual property and information technology public policy issues. Baird served as Senior Policy Advisor & Technology & Intellectual Property Counsel to U.S. Senator Maria Cantwell. He accompanied Senator Cantwell on her first visit to China and was instrumental in setting the stage for the creation of the Clean Energy Forum. He worked extensively intellectual property, privacy, education and technology issues and on landmark legislation including the USA Patriot Act, the Homeland Security Act, 2002 immigration and border security reform, and the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act. Previously, Mr. Baird served as Brookings Legislative Fellow to U.S. Representative Howard Berman, Ranking Member on the Courts and Intellectual Property Subcommittee of the House of Representatives Judiciary Committee and had worked for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. He has held appointments as Visiting Fellow at the University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law and Visiting Scholar at the University of Southern California College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. His writings have appeared in law journals including the Stanford Law and Policy Review and I/S: A Journal of Law and Policy for the Information Society published jointly by Moritz College of Law at The Ohio State University and Carnegie Mellon University's H.J. Heinz III School of Public Policy and Management.